

I urge the commission to look beyond politics and rename the 'Dunvegan - Central Peace' to 'Notley - Central Peace'. He lived serving this country and province and he died serving this province and country. I respectfully suggest that the commission ask Peter Lougheed for his opinion. There was a deep mutual respect between these two statesmen that was resistant to the political jabs of the legislative floor.

Respectfully
R.E. Wanner