

If you can name ridings after Lougheed and Manning, why not Grant Notley? His legacy in this province is huge, and his memory means a hell of a lot more to me than those other two.

If you don't want to name ridings after people anymore, fine. But in that case, please change Lougheed and Manning back to other names in your final draft.

Lou Arab
Edmonton Alberta